

CSIR-Indian Institute Of Chemical Biology (CSIR-IICB) has organised a Skill Development Programme for the healthcare workers and Research Fellows to train the workforce in using Real Time PCR technique. The program was inaugurated on 14th December 2020 and was concluded on 18th Dec 2020. In all, 06(six) trainees have participated in the program to acquire extensive theoretical and practical exposure in handling Real Time PCR technique.

